

NEXT LEVEL CAREER ADVANCEMENT

Are you ready for the next chapter of your life?

June 18-21 • Sept. 17-20
Dec. 3-6
8 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Fleet & Family Support Center

NSA Washington, Bldg. 101 - Training Room 110

Are you willing to be challenged to explore your:

- Interpersonal skills
- Assess job search strengths and weaknesses
- Job searching styles
- Create professional resumes
- Marketing yourself
- Networking
- Financial review
- Veteran's benefits briefing and open to peer reviews

This workshop is designed to meet and assist service members with their Career Readiness Standards (CRS) and career decisions that will greatly effect their career outcome in their next phase of their lives. Services members will be guided through the transition process from military to civilian life. Spouses are encouraged to attend, but must be registered.

P

Parking is available, but all must register with FFSC

Workshop is open to eligible E8s, E9s and any Officers who is retiring with 20+ years of service.

Dress: Business casual

Items: Fully charged laptop and resume

Classes are subject to change.

Please call to sign-up and reserve a seat for all classes. Space is limited and mandated Pre-separation Briefing must be completed prior to registering for the workshop. For more information, call Fleet & Family Support Center 202-685-0229.

STAY
CONNECTED

